

Webinar: Young Energy Conference 2020

Wednesday 18. November

HOUR:	DESCRIPTION:
09:00	Welcome by the Chair of the committee Adrian Holm, Project Manager, Equinor
	Chair: Christina Emilie Kittilsen, Senior Reservoir Engineer, ConocoPhillips
09:10	The importance of the oil and gas industry for Norway Tina Bru, Minister of Petroleum and Energy
09:25	The Northern Lights Projects: - The oil industry will store CO2 from land-based industry underground. How are we going to do it, and what opportunities does it provide for tomorrow's energy industry? Alexander Furnes, Interface Lead- Northern Lights, Shell (Seconded to Equinor)
09:45	Best Oil Industry Practices: What do the best-performing companies do?
	How to become best and sustainable? Jan Frick, Professor, University of Stavanger
	Young Leaders making a difference with sustainable ESG initiatives for diversify the energy portfolio Jamila Mendoza, Energy & Environment Transition Management, University of Stavanger
10:05	Coffee break
	Chair: Marius Menth Andersen, The Norwegian Oil and Gas Association
10:20	The Big Picture - Perspectives from Young Industry Representatives Kaja N. Kløcker, Financial Analyst, ConocoPhillips and Morten Meldahl, Senior Reservoir Engineer, Equinor

HOUR:	DESCRIPTION:
10:40	The digital evolution in geoscience: Improving seismic images with machine learning Aina Juell Bugge, Dr, Lundin Energy Norway
11:00	The E&P industry needs disruptive change Pedro Nunes, Digitalization VP, Aker BP
11:20	Political debate: How are political winds and events effecting the oil and gas industry? Zero emissions in 2050, ice edge, tax changes and carbon capture.
	Moderator: Emil Yde Aasen, New Business Development Economist, A/S Norske Shell
	Participants: Torstein Tvedt Solberg, Member of The Norwegian Parliament, Labour Party and Stefan Heggelund, Member of The Norwegian Parliament, Conservative Party
11:55	Closing Closing by the Chair of the committee Adrian Holm, Project Manager, Equinor